The Election

By ETHA SABEL

. . . Jerry Bean is one of the most competent men I think I've ever known to run for political office. He is articulate and knowledgeable on the issues facing this city. He has a "no nonsense" approach to his assessment of our problems, a fantastic quality in a politician. He has the business experience to run a major corporation — and a city is a municipal corporation. Moreover, Bean has a solid grasp of the lifestyle that all Redlanders enjoy, having been a resident here for more than 20 years. Jerry Bean is your candidate. . . .
